

WILL FOURS

GIS ANALYST/PROJECT PLANNER

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Design, Community & Environment, Berkeley, California. GIS Analyst/Project Planner. 2006 through present. Responsible for research and report writing, comprehensive planning, environmental review projects, and public facilitation. Key staff member conducting extensive GIS analysis and map production for the Yolo County General Plan Update for Yolo County, Envision Chino – General Plan 2025 and EIR for the City of Chino, and the Novato Bay Trail Feasibility Analysis for the City of Novato. Key staff for Napa Community-Based Transportation Plan for the Napa County Transportation Planning Agency.

Association of Bay Area Governments, Oakland, California. Planning Intern. 2006. Compiled land use information from general plans, specific plans, environmental impact reports, and housing elements. Conducted multiple analyses of general plans from the Bay Area's 109 jurisdictions.

Metropolitan Transportation Commission, Oakland, California. GIS Technician. 2006. Designed and produced land use and demographic maps. Helped develop multiple modeling processes for smart growth project. Modeled and analyzed future station area plans, corridor functions and future mode share projections. Identified priority conservation and development areas in the Bay Area.

Odyssey/California Alliance for Transportation Choices, Sacramento, California. Project Associate. 2004 through 2005. Promoted community-based neighborhood and transportation planning. Developed a neighborhood plan in Stockton. Led community outreach and researched relevant planning documents. Actively participated in both Sacramento and Stockton General Plan Updates. Developed marketing materials and grant proposals. Designed and created website.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts, Geography, Dartmouth College, Hanover, New Hampshire. Graduated cum laude.

Coursework in the Department of Geography, Charles University, Prague, Czech Republic.

Coursework in the Center for Environmental Studies, University of Pretoria, South Africa.